BEFORE THE HON'BLE INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, ANDHRA PRADESH,

PRESENT:

D.Phil., (Oxon); Bar-at-Law; (Lincoln's Inn) (London); Chairman, Industrial Tribunal, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad.

INDUSTRIAL DISPUTE No. 48/1964

BETWEEN:

Workmen of Singareni Collieries Company, Limited, Kothagudem.

AND

The Agent (Management) Rudrampur Division of Singareni Collieries Company Ltd., Kothagudem.

APPEARANCES:

Sri K. Kumarayya, General Secretary, Singareni Collieries Workers' Union, Kothagudem—for Workmen.

Sri Solomon Raju, representative of the Management—for the Management.

AWARD

The industrial dispute between the employers of the Singareni Collieries Company Limited, Rudrampur Division, and their workmen was referred for adjudication by the Government of India, Ministry of Labour & Employment, New Delhi's Letter No. 7/17/64-LR-II, dated 10th November 1964, with the following issues framed in the Schedule, namely:

"(1) Whether the management of the Singareni Collieries Company Limited is justified in not allowing the workman Shri G. John, Canteen Supervisor, No. 5 Incline Canteen, Rudrampur, the grade of Rs. 70—5—90—6—102—EB—8—158, having regard to the actual nature of duties performed by him?

(2) If not, to what relief is the said workman entitled?"

2. The reference was registered here as I.D. No. 48 of 1964. Both parties filed some documents and the workman Shri John himself came into the witness box. I have considered the entire record and proceed to pass this Award as below.

9. The entire case of the employer is that, under Sri Dass Gupta's Award, there is one grade of Canteen Supervisor and that is the Clerical Grade II of Rs. 48—100 and Sri John had been correctly placed in it. The canteen supervisors at Birley Pit and Ramavaram were in receipt of salaries higher than Rs. 100/- and, therefore, under the specific provision of Sri Dass Gupta's Award, viz., where there are better scales or rates, the workmen shall continue in their existing scales or rates, they were given the grade of Rs. 70—158. This provision is provided in paragraph 36 at page 87 under the heading (e) Canteen Employees. Moreover their cases were before Sri Dass Gupta's Award and, therefore, cannot be harnessed into use by the workmen in the case of John.

3(1): The entire stand of the workmen is equal wage should be given for equal work. There are several instances in which the employer is given more wages or salaries than those awarded by the Coal Award and there is no reason why in the case of John he should not do so.

3(2): I agree with the workmen, as the record shows that the work of Sri John is equal to and, in some respects, more onerous than those of his counterparts at Birley Pit and Ramavaram Division. He is catering for more workmen. His daily collection are Rs. 200/- and on pay day Rs. 500/- for catering about 3000 workmen. He is working without the assistance of an Assistant Supervisor and a token seller. His work has been satisfactory and he has been recommended the said grade more than once. Ex. W-3 dated 1st of August 1962 is one such recommendation. For all the above reasons, I am of the opinion that, having regard to the work he has been performing, he is entitled to the same grade as that of the other supervisors, viz., Rs. 70—158.

3(3): Usually, the date of demand is taken into consideration for giving retrospective effect to the demand. The said date appears to be 28th June 1964, but, there is no prohibition to go beyond the date of the demand made by the Union on behalf of the workmen. In this case, John has been submitting petition after petition to the employer and the petitions were recommended. Ex. W-3 is dated 1st of August 1962. I, therefore, direct that retrospective effect should be given from that date.

3(4): Before I close I want to state that Sri Solomon Raj, the representative of the employer, pointed out that one of the issues before the Coal Award was standardisation and he has cited two cases of F.L.R., viz., The Management of Birla Cotton, Spinning and Weaving Mills Ltd., Delhi, v. Its Workmen and Others, F.L.R., 1960, 118; (2) Birla Cotton, Spinning and Weaving Mills, v. Its Workmen standardisation are not happy. Standardisation means standardising wages, that is, where they are low to raise them to the standardised level. Similarly, where the wages are high, they have to be reduced in order to fit them in the standardised scheme. This is the basic principle of standardisation. Sri Solomon Raj is not prepared to decrease the wages of the other canteen supervisors, as, he thinks Sri Dass Gupta's Award does not countenance it. Then why speak of standardisation of wages in the case of John? I do not accept his reference to the principle of standardisation.

3(5): I have answered both the issues framed. The employer is not justified in not allowing Sri John the grade of Rs. 70—158 and, therefore, that grade should be given to him from the date of his petition recommended by Ex. W-3. viz. 1-8-1962.

Award accordingly, given under my hand and the seal of the Court, this the 13th day of May, 1965.

REFERENCE ORDER NO. 51(30)/64-LRIV, DATED 21-5-1964 MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT, GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, NEW DELHI

ISSUE

"Whether having regard to the directions contained in the Award, dated the 21st July 1962 of the National Industrial Tribunal (Bank Disputes) at Bombay published with the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Labour & Employment No. S.O. 2603, dated the 7th August 1962 the management of the Indian Overseas Bank Limited was justified in declaring bonus to their workmen for the year 1962 at the rate of 1½ months basic pay, special allowance and officiating allowance? If not, to what quantum of bonus are the workmen entitled?"

This dispute coming on for final hearing, this day upon perusing the claim and counter statements, the joint memo of settlement and other material papers on record and upon hearing the arguments of M/s. V. G. Row, Advocate, N. Sarpath and C. S. Subramaniam, for the All India Bank Employees' Association, Mr. B. R. Dolia, Advocate for the All India Overseas Bank Employees' Union, and the All India Bank Employees' Federation not appearing in person or by Counsel and M/s. P. V. Mahalingam and S. Mathrabutheswaran, Advocates for the Management, the Tribunal passed the following.

AWARD

This dispute between the management of the Indian Overseas Bank Ltd., and their workmen regarding additional bonus for the year 1962 has been referred for adjudication to this Tribunal by the Central Government under Section 7-A and Section 10(1)(d) of the Industrial Disputes Act 14 of 1947. The schedule to the reference sets out the question for adjudication thus:

Whether having regard to the directions contained in the Award, dated the 21st July 1962 of the National Industrial Tribunal (Bank Disputes) at Bombay published with the notification of the Government of India in the Ministry of Labour & Employment No. S.O. 2603 dated the 7th August 1962 the management of the Indian Overseas Bank Limited was justified in declaring bonus to their workmen for the year 1962 at the rate of 1½ months basic pay, special allowance and officiating allowance? If not, to what quantum of bonus are the workmen entitled?

2. There are three unions who are made parties to this dispute—one is All India Bank Employees' Association, another is All India Overseas Bank Employees' Union and the third is All India Bank Employees Federation. Of them the first two alone have filed their claim statements separately while the third union has adopted the claim statement of the All India Overseas Bank Employees' Union. It is therefore necessary to pinpoint the attention of the Tribunal only to two labour unions which for the sake of brevity I would call the Overseas Bank Employees Union and the Bank Employees Association. The Management have filed a counter statement raising many questions of which two alone figured prominently during the hearing. Their contention was that for the purpose of computing the bonus payable for the year 1962 to their employees, profits earned in the Indian Branches of the bank alone should be taken into account and the profits earned by the foreign branches should be left out of account. Another point made by them was that the donation of Rupees one lakh contributed by the Management towards the National Defence Fund in the year of bonus should be a permissible debit against the profits of that year.

3. Both the Unions and the association contested these positions and the main stand taken by them was that upto 1961 the Management have been declaring bonus on the basis of combined or total profits of the Indian branches as well as foreign branches and that there was no justification to depart from this practice in the year 1962 and if both the profits are pooled together for the purpose of computing the bonus payable, more than one and a half months' basic wages would become payable according to the Full Bench Formula. A number of break-up figures were called for and supplied by the Management on the main question of non-inclusion or inclusion of the foreign profits in the pool of profits from which bonus should be paid. At that stage the Management came to an agreement with the Overseas Bank Employees' Union. The claim of the Union was, as is vouched by the affidavit filed by the President of the Union that they represent 80% of the employees of the Bank in India and they have come to an agreement with the Management which is in writing and has been produced before this Tribunal. According to this agreement, half a month's basic pay as on 1-1-1963 is agreed to be paid to all employees who were in permanent or probationary service in the bank during the whole of 1962-63 and who are in service on 1st January 1963 towards the bonus claim made and covered by this reference. There are one or two other clauses in the settlement which I need not refer to at this stage.

4. The Association objected to this settlement being given effect to by the Tribunal on many grounds which have been formulated by the Representative of the Association thus:

(a) It is said that the provisions of S.2(P) of the Industrial Disputes Act have not been complied with in respect of this settlement and therefore the Tribunal should disregard it.

Mr. Dolla, Counsel appearing for the Union and Mr. Mahalingam Iyer, Counsel appearing for the Management have produced a copy of the letter Ex. M-1 showing that a copy of this settlement was sent to the Regional Commissioner of Labour (Central), Madras, on 18-2-63 under the joint signatures of the Assistant General Manager of the Management and the President and General Secretary of the Union concerned. The settlement has been signed by the representatives of the Union and the Management although the representatives of the Association are not parties to this settlement. On that score it could not be said that the settlement infringes the provisions of Sec. 2(p) of the Industrial Disputes Act. I do not find any substance in this objection.

(b) The next objection raised by the representative of the Association was that the settlement was invalid because it deals with matters other than the subject matter of the reference, namely, demand for additional bonus for the year 1962. This cannot obviously be a good ground of attack as it is open to the representatives of the Union and the Management to settle as many disputes as possible during one negotiation and to embody all the terms of the settlement in one agreement without resort to separate agreements for each head of dispute. Nearly because a number of disputes are thrown together under one settlement, the settlement as such would not become invalid. As an illustration of this objection Mr. Subramaniam, representative of the Association, pointed out that according to clause 4 of the agreement, the Union was agreeing to treat the present settlement as full and final settlement of all past claims of the Union for bonus upto 31-12-1963. He pointed out that for six years prior to 1962 the Union had entered into bilateral agreements with the Management in respect of bonus payable for those years while his association had not accepted the bonus declared by the Management as sufficient or legally due to the employees. On behalf of the Management Mr. Mahalingam Iyer, Counsel pointed out that this clause was inserted as a precaution because even though without the aid of this clause the Union was debarred from raising any dispute in relation to bonus for the six years prior to 1962, the office bearers of the Union had attempted to raise this dispute by a letter dated 15-3-64, addressed to the Regional Labour Commissioner, Central, Madras and therefore the Management was anxious to prevent the Union, who were parties to the previous bilateral agreement, from raising matters of bonus payable for the six years prior to 1962 which had been settled by written agreements with that Union. Evidently before March 1964 the Union had not taken any steps to treat the question of bonus for six years prior to 1962 as a live issue while according to Mr. Subramaniam, for the Association, his organisation had been taking steps even then to bring this matter to the notice of the authorities for the purpose of conciliation and redress. It is unnecessary in this reference to go into this matter at any length because the present settlement can only bind by clause (4) the Overseas Bank Employees' Union who alone were parties to the arrangements under which the claim for the six years (prior to 1962) covered by the bilateral arrangements between the Union and the Management was settled. It is not therefore correct to contend that the present settlement as such dealt with questions other than the question referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. However, Mr. Subramaniam pointed out that 15 days additional bonus payable under the settlement was treated by the Management as bonus not only for 1962 but also for 1963 and he pointed out certain averments found in the affidavit filed on behalf of the President of the Union where it is stated that the settlement involved payment of 7½ days' salary for 1962 as bonus and payment of another 7½ days' salary as bonus for 1963. But the Management have not accepted this interpretation, as would be seen from the reply affidavit filed by the Assistant General Manager of the Management under date 29-3-65 where they do not accept this contention. It therefore appears to me to be a matter of merely interpretation of the terms of settlement to see whether the settlement involved payment of separate bonus for 1962 apart from separate bonus for 1963. How far the settlement can be reasonably read in that light does not arise for my consideration now. The short question for my consideration is whether the settlement is fair and was bona fide come to between the parties as a result of which the dispute as to additional bonus for the year 1962 no longer exists. The fairness of the settlement can be rightly gauged from the fact that if foreign profits earned by the Management is left out of account the workers will not be entitled to claim as of right more than one and a half months' wages as bonus for 1962 which amount was already declared by the Management and paid. This is a case where the Management have kept separate accounts for their Indian Branches as distinct from the accounts for foreign branches. It is therefore quite easy to compute the profits earned from the Indian Branches from the published accounts of the Indian Overseas Bank. The question anyway was not free from doubt and it was certainly a highly debatable question. Under such circumstances the conduct of the Union in accepting the additional bonus secured by the present settlement could not be termed unfair or in derogation of the rightful claim of the employees for bonus for 1962.

(c) The last objection raised by Mr. Subramaniam on behalf of the association was that there was lack of good faith on the part of the Management because it is said they had come to an agreement with the Union ignoring the association during negotiations for settlement. Mr. Dolia, Counsel for the Union pointed out that the Union was the only recognised Union up-to-date having on its roll nearly 80% of the employees and that the Management was not bound to negotiate with the minority Union, namely, the association for this purpose. He also cited the decision of the Madras High Court—Workers of B. & C. Co. v. Commissioner of Labour, reported in 1964 I L.L.J. 253—in support of his contention. According to the Indian Trade Union Amendment Act of 1947, it is an undoubted privilege for a recognised trade union to negotiate with the employers in respect of matters connected with the employment or non-employment or terms of employment or the conditions of services of labour or of any of its members, as laid down in Sec. 28(j). Though this enactment has not yet been brought into force it embodies a principle which has been accepted by the 15th tripartite labour conference to which all the three interested parties, namely, employers, labour unions and Government were parties. In laying down the code of conduct for labour relations, this principle embodied in Sec. 28 (j) in the Trade Union Amendment Act has been accepted as a guiding principle and therefore bad faith cannot be attributed to the Management in this case for their having chosen to negotiate with the Union representing 80% of the Indian employees ignoring the association representing a small minority of the Indian Overseas Bank employees.

5. All the objections raised to the validity of the settlement having thus failed, it stands to reason that this Tribunal should accept the settlement as a fair settlement between the parties. As a consequence of this settlement, the dispute as regards additional bonus for the year 1962 does not subsist and therefore no award is necessary.

6. By way of clarification, it is requested that I should state that the present settlement would not stand in the way of persons who are not parties to it to raise disputes other than the dispute relating to additional bonus for 1962. Such an observation strictly falls outside the scope of this reference.

7. There will be no order as to costs.
